FIELD HOCKEY PROSPECT CAMP

August 1, 2023

Camp includes instruction, lunch and a camp pinnie. Campers will need to be dropped off in the morning and picked up in the afternoon for this camp. Hotels and travel arrangements are not provided. Participants must secure their own overnight accommodations and transportation (if needed).

The Princeton Field Hockey Prospect Camp is a one-day camp offering technical & tactical training, small game training, video analysis, and full field play. This camp is designed for players interested in playing at the next level. Tours of the camps and facilities will be offered. All play will be on water-based turf, as well as field turf.
